CRITERIA

Applications are invited from young New Zealanders who have exceptional talent in either sport or music. The awards are intended for those who have not yet reached the peak of their potential but who could, with some assistance, excel on the national and international stage in the years to come.

- Awards are available to athletes and musicians
- Candidates should be between the ages of 16 – 26*
- Candidates must be New Zealand citizens

Athletes - Are you:

- A leading sportsperson in your discipline?
- Winning national titles in categories well above your age group?
- Already showing potential to be a future World Champion?
- Committed to your chosen sport with clear long term goals?
- Considered an athlete of high potential by your national body?

Musicians - Are you:

- A holder of any recognised music qualification(s)?
- Enrolled in a tertiary institution to study music?
- Considered to have the potential or to be amongst the best in your chosen area of music?

While NCEA curriculum achievement in music will be noted, more emphasis will be placed on involvement and success in the co-curricular programmes such as Smoke Free Rockquest, Play it Strange, Pasifica Beats, Battle of the Bands and the like.

*The Trustees reserve the right to award scholarships to candidates who fall outside these criteria.

A professional is a person who takes part in an activity as a means of livelihood. The Adastra Foundation is not permitted to fund professionals. If you are uncertain of your status, please detail the income you receive related to your activity.

The Adastra Foundation Trustees are committed to selecting recipients in a fair and open manner. The Trustees may seek further information from you when considering your application. You may be asked to attend an interview with the Adastra Foundation Trustees.

CONDITIONS OF SCHOLARSHIP

In the event that a scholarship is awarded and it is found that the applicant has misrepresented information and/or brings themselves into disrepute, the applicant will be obliged to refund the scholarship in full upon 7 days notice. If the scholarship is not returned in full within 7 days the applicant shall reimburse The Adastra Foundation for all costs incurred (including legal costs on a solicitor/client basis) in recovering the grant.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

The Adastra Foundation encourages recipients to take part in the Foundation's Mentoring Programme by attending the various Adastra workshops that are offered. We also ask recipients to update the Trustees on a regular basis on results/performances in their chosen field as well as in their academic pursuits (if relevant).

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIP

In most cases the Scholarship will be paid in two installments via electronic transfer. Prior to the second installment being paid, we ask that the recipient prepare and return a Performance Update. The Trustees reserve the right to reconsider your award should there be significant changes to your situation.

I (the undersigned) make a solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.
I declare that the information provided in this application to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
